Re: Noble Energy, Inc.'s Second Transmittal in Response to Request for Information Pursuant to Section 114(a)(1) of the Clean Air Act, 42 U.S.C. § 7414(a)(1); Tank Batteries Located in Weld, Boulder, and Broomfield Counties of Colorado

Dear Ms. Beeler:

Noble Energy, Inc. ("Noble") hereby submits to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Region 8 ("EPA") its second transmittal to the above-referenced Request for Information ("Request") dated August 1, 2013 concerning Noble tank batteries in Weld, Boulder, and Broomfield Counties of Colorado.

As discussed, Noble is responding to this Request by way of multiple transmittals as follow: (1) on or before November 30, 2013, submit all required information for all systems outlined in the Request except for systems 21, 24, 25, 31, 47, 51, 53, and 54; (2) on or before December 23, 2013, submit all required information for systems 25, 31, and 53; and (3) within sixty (60) days from the date systems 21, 24, 47, 51, and 54 resume operational status, submit all required information.

On November 27, 2013, Noble transmitted all required information associated with the November 30, 2013 deadline as well as all required information associated with system 24 ("Transmittal #1"). By way of this second transmittal and consistent with the above schedule, please find enclosed all required information for systems 25, 31, 53 and 47 ("Transmittal #2").

All information associated with Transmittal #2 is included on the enclosed compact disc ("CD"). As was the case with Transmittal #1, Transmittal #2 also contains confidential business information and has been labeled as such. Please note that Noble has included the complete Excel file ("EPA Workbook") that was included in Transmittal #1 with the additional information included for systems 25, 31, 53, and 47 (highlighted in green). Noble has again provided a .PDF version of all tabs included in the EPA Workbook for reference in the event that the EPA Workbook is inadvertently modified.

CONFIDENTIAL
BUSINESS
INFORMATION

As you will recall, Noble's Transmittal #1 included a twenty-five (25) page response document that set forth Noble's General Objections, Objections to Definitions, Reservations of Rights and Defenses Regarding the EPA Workbook, Reservations of All Rights and Defenses, Specific Objections, Responses to Questions, Request for Confidential Business Information Status, and Statement of Certification ("Written Response Letter" or "Response Letter"). Noble hereby incorporates the Written Response Letter by reference as though fully set forth herein. The EPA Workbook also references the Written Response Letter or Response Letter in response to various inquiries. A copy of the Written Response Letter is included for ease of reference on the enclosed CD.

By way of this transmittal, Noble includes only those documents relevant to Transmittal #2. Where appropriate, documents relevant to both Transmittal #1 and Transmittal #2 are duplicated or updated. In the "Simulations Results" subfolder in the "Documents Consulted" folder is a document titled, "Revised pg E-3 of EPA Simulation Calculation Notes.pdf". This document updates the table on page E-3 of the "EPA Simulation Calculation Notes.pdf," which is included in the same subfolder, to provide the information required for the additional four (4) systems included in this second transmittal.

If you have any questions regarding this response, please contact Denee DiLuigi at (303) 228-4251.

Sincerely,

Vice President, DJ Basin
